2 THE CHAIRMAN: Very well.

3 The Chair is apparently in error in the belief
4 that there was a recommendation of the Committee on
5 General Provisions touching upon this matter.

6 I know there is one in the judicial branch.

7 I am suggesting merely, Delegate Bamberger,
8 that if your intention was as indicated, that the amendment
9 may not be the happiest way to express it.

10 Delegate Bamberger.

11 DELEGATE BAMBERGER: I would be quite pleased
12 to withdraw the amendment if the committee can come up with 13 words which accomplish what I understand they intend to 14 accomplish. I do not think they do it now, because I think
15 that by both the colloquy this morning and the Committee's 16 memorandum they are adopting the language of the the 17 decision of the Court of Appeals.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Let me make this suggestion to 19 you, if I may. This is very artificial language, but may 20 carry out the intent so that the Committee on Style can 21 straighten it out.
